ATTENTION! MINUTE MEN! You are requested to meet at the Court ouse, on Saturday, evening next, at half-past 'clock, at which time a Constitution and .aws are to be adopted, and Officers elected. by order of the Company.

J. C. CALHOUN, Sec'y.

GRAIN RECEIPTS MORE THAN DOUBLED. of January amounts to 26,860,973 bushels, against 12,428,478 bushels received in the cor responding period of last year. MR. E. L. SNOW.

We have had the pleasure during the present week of receiving a call from Mr. E. L. Snow, the courteous and gentlemanly travelling and collecting agent of the Charleston Courier. Mr. State, and will remain in our Village for several days. We take pleasure in commending him to the kind regard of our friends.

ARMS FROM ENGLAND.

The Commissioners appointed under a law of the Virginia Legislature, to procure arms for the better defence of the State, have been in corresspondence with the manufacturers of the Enfield, Rifle, in England, and been offered 5,000 of that arm at prices near sixty five shill lings. British, for each piece. They have written to say that they will cake 2,500 at that

NEGRO DISTURBANCES.

There have been thirty arrests in Princess Anne and Norfolk counties, Va., of negroes implicated in the recent conspiracy there. Dick Ryan, the ringlender, and another free negrorthe Norfolk Day Book says, were shot Grand Soiree at the Marshall House. and killed by the patrol who were attempting to capture them. In Halifax, N. C., there have been some servile disturbances. The slaves on two or three farms had run off. A patrol had been appointed in the county.

THE SOUTH.

A corespondent of the New Haven Journal and Courier, (Republican.) writes from Montgomery, Alabama, under date of September 24th, as follows :-

"Breckinridge is strong in Georgia, Alabama and South Carolina. Bell and Everett are gaining every day. November may show a horse of another color. Douglas is nowhere and cannot get a corporal's guard in either of the Southern States. I thing Breckinridge will carry nearly all of them.'

COMMENCEMENT AT COKESBURY.

We direct attention to the advertisement of the Annual Examination and Exhibition of the Cokesbury Masonic Female College, which will commence on Monday, the 22d inst, and close on Thursday, the 25th inst. The occasion promises to be one of unusual interest.

We are indebted to the Board of Trustees for a Card of Invitation, and will take pleasure in attending.

THE PARMER AND PLANTER.

We have had the pleasure of greeting in our Village during the present week Mr. R. M. sterling journal. The Farmer and Planter is shall be formed, then, that a Regiment of Minore of our best Agricultural journals, and ute Men be organized, the officers to be elected should be in the hands of every farmer in the State. Mr. Stokes will remain in our Village during the Fair, and will be happy to receive subscriptions to his journal.

THE WIDE-AWAKE DEMONSTRATION. The great demonstration of the Wide Awakes took place at New York on Wednesday evening. Instead of twenty five or thirty thousand torches appearing in procession, as was announced, there were, from all accounts, not twelve thousand. The Times, (Republican,) sets down the number at 11,500; the Herald, at 10,700, and the News, at 7,500. The Herald says the expenses of this oil demonstration amounted to $70,250. THE NEWS.

By the arrival of the Africa of Cape Race, we have news from Europe to the 30th .ult., three days later than the accounts previously received.

The most important points of the news are the announcement of the capitulation of the garrison of Ancona to the Sardiniane, and the confirmation of the report of the partial repulse of the Garibaldians by the troops of the King of Naples at Capua. The last mentioned affair was by no means decisive, however, as the Garibaldians maintained their positions and renewed the attack in force.

The Popethas threatened to leave Rome, being advised to such a course by the Cardinals.

OUR DISTRICT ELECTION. In consequence of the hurry in getting in the result of our election last week, we were prevented from neticing the complimentary vote seceived by the Hon. M. L. BURHAM for Congress and the Hone J. Forre MARSHALL for State Senate. These gentlemen were elected without opposition, and we would remark that the votereceived by our patriotic and worthy Senator is one that says to him, well done! We have sustained you, and your Da trict looks to you in connexion with her other worthy Representatives to sustain her in common with other Districts of the state in the approaching political crisis. We say that her honor, her rights and her institutions are in safe

OUR DISTRICT FAIR.

We have only time and space in our present sone for a very brief mention of our District Fair, which is now in progress, and which promises to reflect great credit upon the District, and upon all concerned. The people of Abbeville seemed to have turned out in mass, and we have rarely seen so bright an array as was presented at the Fair Grounds on Wednesnesday and Thursday. The attendance is very large, equalling, if not exceeding that of last is one of the largest and most complete stocks year, whilst the display of articles upon exhiis far superior. The display of Blooded Stock and a variety of fine grades of cattle is unusually fine, whilst in the Departments of Field Crops, and Domestic Industry, the number of articles upon exhibition is very full and com-

To give some idea of the number and variety of the entries, we would mention that among these are. Thirteen Stallions, Thirteen Pair of Carriage Horses and Mares, 16 Buggy Horses, 18 Saddle Horses, 19 Geldings, 11 Fillies, 16 Mares and Colts, 9 Jucks, 23 Mules, 9 Mule Cilts, 21 head of Devous, 13 Ayreshires, 27 Grades, 46 Common Cattle, 23 head of fine Merinos, South Downs, Cotswold and Flat Toll, Reducing the flour to bushels, the total 72 head of Swine, consisting of Essex. Chester amount of grain received at Chicago siece 1st County, Suffolk and Common Stock. Any quartity of Farming Implements, Waggons Buggies, Carriages. Gins, Fans, Threshers, &c., and as for samples of Corn, Wheat, Peas, Potatoes, Turnips, Vegetables, Barrels of Flower, &c., this department is filled to overflowing ; In the Ladies Hall there are 72 of the finest Quilts, Counterpains, Comforts, and the like, that was ever on exhibition. The Domestic Snow is now on a business tour through our Department cannot be excelled in quality and quantity by any Fair in the State. Of the Crochet, Needle Work, Wax, Hair and Shell Work, and paintings, there are many magnifi cent epecimens on exhibition.

There has been a large attendance from other Districts, and we see Exhibitors from Edgeffeld, | B. F. Bates. Newberry, Laurens and Anderson. To these all we extend a hearty welcome.

At a meeting of the Society on Wednesday night, a very interesting address was made by tne President, Col. J. F. MARSHALL; and ableand instructive essays were read by Gen. McGowan, Col. Talman, Maj. GRIFFIN, and Maj. J. K. VANCE.

. K. VANCE.

The Fair is a great success, and reflects great eredit upon the Executive Committee, and the indefatigable zeal and energy of the President, Col. J. F. MARSUALL.

To-night, (Thursday) is the occasion of the
